5. Warranties

- 5.1. Subject to clause 9, Bray Street Engineering warrants the goods are supplied free of defects in materials or workmanship under normal usage. In the event of defect in materials or workmanship Bray Street Engineering will repair or exchange any defective part provided that the defect is brought to the attention of Bray Street Engineering within ten (10) years from the date of sale of the goods and Bray Street Engineering is reasonably satisfied the defect is caused by fault in the materials or manufacturing workmanship. This warranty is exclusive to the client and is not transferable.
- 5.2. Bray Street Engineering shall not be liable for any consequential or special damages under any circumstances whatsoever.
- 5.3. All quoted performance figures are based upon previous experience and reasonable expectation of ordinary usage. Any items not reasonably performing to those quoted standards will be replaced, if replaced Bray Street Engineering will have no further liability to the client.

6. Credit

- 6.1. There is no obligation for Bray Street Engineering to continue to provide credit and it may at any time withdraw the credit facility granted and require immediate payment of the total amount due and outstanding by the client including the purchase price of the goods, and all interest and expenses.

7. Insurance

7.1. The goods become the responsibility of the purchaser upon delivery to the purchaser and all risk (including loss, damage or deterioration) passes to the purchaser. Bray Street Engineering is not required to insure the goods from delivery.

8. Delivery and non-availability

8.1. Any delivery dates quoted by Bray Street Engineering are estimates only. Bray Street Engineering will use reasonable endeavours to see that deliveries are made according to schedule but shall not be responsible for delivery delays due to causes beyond Bray Street Engineering 's control and the client agrees to accept delivery as soon as the goods are able to be delivered.

8.2. All goods ordered by the client are subject to such goods being available for delivery and Bray Street Engineering accepts no responsibility for non-availability of goods and shall not be liable for any act of God or force majeure event, including, but not limited to, industrial disputes, war or delays or defaults of manufacturers, which delays or frustrates the performance of this agreement.

9. Consumer Guarantees Act 1993 (CGA)

9.1. If the CGA applies, the terms and conditions shall be read subject to the client's rights under the CGA, provided that where the client is acquiring goods for business purposes, the CGA shall not apply.

10. Personal Property Securities Act 1999 (PPSA)

10.1. To secure payment of all amounts owing by the client to Bray Street Engineering from time to time, the client as debtor grants a security interest in all goods purchased from Bray Street Engineering previously supplied by Bray Street Engineering to the client and all present and after acquired goods supplied by Bray Street Engineering to the client. The client agrees that the goods are collateral securing payment of all outstanding indebtedness owing by the client to Bray Street Engineering.

10.2. The client acknowledges and agrees that the security interest given to Bray Street Engineering includes a security interest in all proceeds of collateral.

10.3. The client acknowledges and agrees that the security interest given to Bray Street Engineering is a PMSI.

10.4. The client agrees to waive its right to receive a verification statement in respect of any financing statement or financing change statement relating to the security interest and that the client contracts out of sections 114(1)(a), 117(1)(c), 133, or 134 of the PPSA. The rights of a debtor in sections 116, 119, 120(2), 121, 125, 126, 127, 129, 131, and 132 of the PPSA do not apply to the security interest given by the client to Bray Street Engineering.

10.5. The client agrees to provide any information or sign any document required under the PPSA and the regulations under the PPSA to enable Bray Street Engineering to register a financing statement or a financing change statement.

10.6. In the event that the Client is in default under these Terms or BRAY STREET ENGINEERING considers the goods to be at risk the Client hereby irrevocably gives BRAY STREET ENGINEERING, its officers, employees and agents licence without the necessity of notice to enter onto any premises owned or occupied by the Client to search for and take possession of the goods and remove them without being in any way liable to the Client or anyone claiming under the Client for doing so. If the goods are wholly or partially attached to or incorporated in any other goods BRAY STREET ENGINEERING may disconnect or sever them in any way necessary to remove the goods.

10.7. Should the goods be merged into other goods then Bray Street Engineering shall have a general security created over the new goods so created for the moneys outstanding.

10.7.1. Agreement to Mortgage if land.

10.8. Should the goods be merged into land then an interest in that land shall be created in favour of Bray Street Engineering by way of a charge or mortgage over that property. Bray Street Engineering shall be entitled to call upon the Client to execute a mortgage in favour of Bray Street Engineering over that land and Bray Street Engineering shall be entitled to register such mortgage and until such is registered maintain a caveat over the said land.

11. Spreading of Payments

11.1. Bray Street Engineering may allocate any money received in payment for goods supplied towards debts, charges and expenses owing in any priority it determines so that payments can be applied in partial payment of all or any outstanding invoices to maintain a PMSI in the goods.

12. Installation Charges

12.1. Bray Street Engineering shall not be charged any penalty whatsoever as a result of late completion of the contract caused by delay's in supply shortages and nothing said to the contrary of this provision shall be binding on Bray Street Engineering.

13. Ownership

13.1. Property in goods sold by Bray Street Engineering shall not pass until the client has made payment in full of the purchase price for those goods to Bray Street Engineering. Until such payment is made the client will hold the goods as bailee for Bray Street Engineering and Bray Street Engineering shall have the right to enter the premises occupied by the client and take possession of any of those goods at any time after payment is due.

13.2. If the goods or any of them are resold before payment is made, the client shall hold the sale proceeds for and on trust for Bray Street Engineering. The proceeds of any such sale will reduce the debt to Bray Street Engineering and Bray Street Engineering may take such legal remedies as are available to it to recover any balance outstanding. The client agrees that any collection costs incurred by Bray Street Engineering in collection of all or any part of any overdue debt on this account will be payable by it.

14. Privacy Act

14.1. The client expressly authorises Bray Street Engineering to make any enquiries it considers necessary for confirmation of any information set out on this application. The client understands that it has rights under the Privacy Act 1993 to access and correct any information held by Bray Street Engineering about the client.

15. Authority

15.1. The persons signing the application confirm(s) having the authority to make and sign this application on behalf of the client.

16. Terms of Contract

16.1. Any goods supplied by Bray Street Engineering shall be subject to these terms unless agreed otherwise in writing. The client's acceptance of goods from Bray Street Engineering is deemed to be an acceptance of these terms notwithstanding anything that may be stated to the contrary in or contained in the client's purchase order and whether the client has signed these conditions or not.

16.2. Waivers of or changes to these terms are effective only if made in writing and signed on Bray Street Engineering's behalf. Bray Street Engineering reserves the right to modify these terms at any time.

DEFINITIONS

"The Seller", "The Company", "The Supplier", "We", "BRAY STREET ENGINEERING" shall refer to Bray Street Engineering Heating Limited or any agents or employees thereof.

"The customer", "Buyer", "You", "Your" shall mean any person or persons, company or business entity to whom BRAY STREET ENGINEERING sells or supplies, or proposes to sell or supply, Goods or Services.

The "Goods" and/or "Services" means any goods, products, and/or services supplied by BRAY STREET ENGINEERING to the Customer.

TERMS

These terms and conditions "Terms" apply to each contract to supply goods or services by BRAY STREET ENGINEERING to the party purchasing the goods or services and supersede any previous terms and conditions agreed between the parties. By accepting a quote from BRAY STREET ENGINEERING, the Buyer agrees to be bound by these Terms.

CREDIT REFEREES

If pursuing credit terms: Pursuant to the provisions of Privacy Act and its successors, the buyer authorizes any person or company to provide BRAY STREET ENGINEERING with such information as required in response to the credit enquiries. The buyer further authorizes BRAY STREET ENGINEERING to furnish any third party details of this application and any subsequent dealings that may result of this application being actioned.

PRICE

Prices noted on estimates and quotes are GST and freight exclusive unless stated otherwise. The price shall be increased by:

- (a) the amount of any GST and other taxes and duties which may be applicable; and
- (b) Any modifications in design or specification of the goods or service requested by the customer that was not provided for in the original quote or estimate.
- (c) If the job was quoted on the assumption that a digital file (DXF) would be supplied by the customer and the customer has not supplied a drawing in compliance with Section 14.

A contract is created and the Customer is bound to pay the price when BRAY STREET ENGINEERING accepts the Customer's order in writing. Each accepted order shall constitute a separate contract. A quotation does not create a binding contract until the Customer places an order that is then accepted by BRAY STREET ENGINEERING.

All quotes, estimates and pricing, unless otherwise specified, are valid for 30 days from the date of issue and may be subject to such further conditions as are expressly set out in the quote, estimate or pricing.

PRODUCT INFORMATION AND STATEMENTS

No warranty is given as to:

- (a) The accuracy of any technical and other data given to the buyer in printed material relating to goods, unless the seller and the buyer otherwise agree in writing.
- (b) The conformity of any delivered goods to any samples supplied.
- (c) The design, functionality, fit or form of the product if being made to the buyer's specifications.

All drawings and technical documents delivered by one party to the other party shall remain the property of the first party and must not be used by the other party or reproduced or brought to the knowledge of third persons without the consent of the first party. Where the seller has made any goods to the specifications supplied by the buyer, the buyer shall indemnify the seller from any cost, claim, loss or expense arising as a result of those specifications infringing or being alleged to infringe any patent, copyright, registered design or other intellectual property right of any other person.

No other warranties either express or implied by law are made with respect to these products.

If the Consumer Guarantees Act applies, then any guarantee implied by it shall be part of this contract unless the goods or services are for business purposes in which case clause 6 (liability) shall apply.

LIABILITY

The seller shall not be liable for failure to deliver the goods by a specified date or for loss suffered by the buyer as a result of any event beyond the control of the seller.

The seller shall only be responsible to comply with the regulations, bylaws, codes and standards specified in the contract and shall be under no liability whatsoever for any failure to meet any other regulations, bylaws, codes and standards.

The seller may make suggestions to the buyer and may issue drawings to the buyer for approval. However the seller makes no representations as to being a design, structural or civil engineer or architect or other authority and it is the buyer's responsibility to ensure that the designs and goods are fit for purpose or are of acceptable quality in all respects and to seek independent advice and verification from suitably qualified professionals when appropriate.

Notwithstanding anything in these terms and conditions, any liability of the seller shall not exceed the price of the contract under which such liability has arisen.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Terms, under no circumstances, shall BRAY STREET ENGINEERING be liable to the Customer or any other person (whether in contract, tort, including negligence, statute or otherwise) for any:

- (a) loss of profits;
- (b) consequential loss or damage;
- (c) indirect loss or damage; or
- (d) special loss or damage of any kind; or (e) legal or other costs

DELIVERY AND RISK

Delivery of the goods shall be made at the seller's premises unless otherwise agreed in writing. If the buyer fails to take delivery, the goods shall be deemed to have been delivered when the seller was willing to deliver them. In this event any cost to the seller for transport and/or storage shall be to the buyer's account.

Risk in the goods shall pass to the buyer on delivery. Bray Street Engineering are under no responsibility to insure goods at any stage nor are they under any other duty of care or bailment while the goods are awaiting collection by the buyer.

Unless agreed in writing by BRAY STREET ENGINEERING, all goods left with the Company for more than seven (7) days after completion of processing shall attract a storage fee equal to 10% of the total invoice value each week.

PAYMENT

Payment for goods supplied and any freight or insurance charges and goods and services tax shall be made by the buyer no later than the 20th of the month following the date of invoice unless the seller has otherwise agreed in writing. Interest at the rate of 15% per annum shall be payable on all amounts overdue calculated as from the date when due and payable until the date of payment and the charging of interest shall be in addition to all other rights of the seller.

All collection and legal costs incurred in the recovery of outstanding monies will be payable by the buyer.

INSOLVENCY OF THE PURCHASER

If, before delivery, there arises reasonable grounds for belief that the buyer will not be able to fulfil its payment obligations to the seller on the required date, the seller shall have the right to demand security or payment in advance of delivery. If security to the reasonable satisfaction of the seller is not offered or, if payment in advance of delivery is not made without delay, the seller may cancel the order.

TITLE TO GOODS

Until the account is paid in full, the seller will retain ownership of any goods or services provided and shall be entitled to remove the said in the event that the account rendered for the same remains unpaid.

The Buyer grants to BRAY STREET ENGINEERING a security interest in the goods as that term is defined under the Personal Property Securities Act 1999 ['PPSA'] and any further goods supplied and any proceeds of such goods until all amounts required to be paid by BRAY STREET ENGINEERING have been paid in full. The parties hereby contract out of Part 9 of PPSA so that the rights and obligations contained in Sections 114, 125, 129, 132, 133 and 134 of that Part do not apply between the parties, and the Buyer waives its rights under Section 121 and 131 and its right under Section 148 to receive any financing statement or financing change statement from BRAY STREET ENGINEERING.

In the event that the Buyer is in default under these Terms or BRAY STREET ENGINEERING considers the goods to be at risk the Buyer hereby irrevocably gives BRAY STREET ENGINEERING, its officers, employees and agents licence without the necessity of notice to enter onto any premises owned or occupied by the Buyer to search for and take possession of the goods and remove them without being in any way liable to the Buyer or anyone claiming under the Buyer for doing so. If the goods are wholly or partially attached to or incorporated in any other goods BRAY STREET ENGINEERING may disconnect or sever them in any way necessary to remove the goods.

Should the goods be merged into other goods then Bray Street Engineering shall have a general security created over the new goods so created for the moneys outstanding.

Should the goods be merged into land then an interest in that land shall be created in favour of Bray Street Engineering by way of a charge or mortgage over that property. Bray Street Engineering shall be entitled to call upon the buyer to execute a mortgage in favour of Bray Street Engineering over that land and Bray Street Engineering shall be entitled to register such mortgage and until such is registered maintain a caveat over the said land.

CANCELLATION AND RETURNS

Orders once placed and accepted can be cancelled only with BRAY STREET ENGINEERING's prior written consent and upon terms that will save BRAY STREET ENGINEERING from loss. Cancellation of items will not be accepted without full compensation being given to BRAY STREET ENGINEERING for all expenses incurred after such orders are in production. BRAY STREET ENGINEERING may, at its discretion, and upon such terms as it determines, accept returns of goods.

No Goods may be returned without first obtaining written permission from BRAY STREET ENGINEERING. Such permission is to be requested from the Sales Office where the Goods were obtained.

Claims of incorrect or defective Goods must be made in writing to the Sales Office where the Goods were obtained within ten days from receipt of the Goods.

SUB-CONTRACTING

The Customer acknowledges that BRAY STREET ENGINEERING may sub-contract all or any part of the works that BRAY STREET ENGINEERING has been contracted to carry out on such terms as it deems fit and to which the Customer hereby agrees.

MATERIAL GRADE AND SPECIFICATION

BRAY STREET ENGINEERING reserves the option to choose what material grade suits the Customer's order unless the Customer specifies in writing a particular material grade.

Customer supplied material must be within specification to fit our toolsets and machines.

Should a customer supply their own material we require a material certificate, we offer no guarantee and the job is processed completely at the customers risk on an "all care – no responsibility" basis.

CUSTOMER SUPPLIED DRAWINGS

If a quote has been prepared based off the customer supplying digital drawings, the following applies: a) All electronic drawing files (DXF, DWG, Solidworks etc) must be scaled 1:1, clean and ready for processing.

b) All electronic drawing files must have a unique name, if a supplied file is the same name as one previously supplied by the Customer, we will deem it as being the same.

c) A separate file is required for each profile.

LAW AND JURISDICTION

The contract shall in all respects be deemed to be a contract made under New Zealand law and the construction, validity and performance of the contract shall be governed by New Zealand law.
